QUESTIONNAIRE

29 April 1948

Won't you please give us at your earliest convenience detailed replies to the questions below:

1. Who are the 20 members of the SULYOK group, which you reported were being transferred to France about 20 April with French agreement?
2. Does PALFFY have anything to do with this group, or is it exclusively a SULYOK matter?
3. What are the latest developments as to this group of 20?
4. Are SULYOK and PALFFY working jointly or are their activities, contacts with the French, etc., etc., to be considered as separate?
5. What were specifically the contacts of (1) SULYOK (11) PALFFY in Innsbruck - (a) among the French (b) among what you describe as the Eastern emigres.
6. What are the latter groups; who are their spokesmen; and exactly what agreement has been established between them, on the one hand, and PALFFY and/or SULYOK on the other.
7. What are (a) their contacts with individuals in Hungary? (b) what is their actual state of liaison with individuals or groups in Hungary.
8. You spoke some time ago of PALFFY setting up an escape route with Hungary. What has been achieved in this respect?
9. Are there on the part of SULYOK or PALFFY any specific commitments towards the French. If so, with respect to what? the radio transmissions? any other form of assistance? financing?

(In regard to the points above, it is very important you make it clear to us how PALFFY stands with respect to SULYOK and vice-versa.)
